

Prototype

Creating a prototype is about giving form to your idea or solution. By doing so you'll automatically learn what you don't know about your challenge - it's hard to draw something that you can't quite picture. Also it's about enabling others to picture your idea and help you by giving their feedback. Be open and curious to learn by sharing the way you picture your idea at this stage in your proces.

My...

help(s)...

by...

I'm curious to learn more about...

Sketch
Draw a sketch that illustrates how your solution works

